Any Full Member who is employed, upon application, by a governmental entity shall be eligible for Public Sector Membership. Any Full Member who is employed, upon application, by a non-profit organization, shall be eligible for Non Profit Membership. Any Full Member who has, upon application, been in good standing of the Bar of any State, the District of Columbia, or any international bar for one year or less shall be eligible for First Year Lawyer Membership (assuming said member has not previously been a member in good standing of another bar for a period longer than a year). Any Full Member who has, upon application, been in good standing of the Bar of any State, the District of Columbia, or any international bar for more than one year but less than four years shall be eligible for 2-3 Year Practice Membership (assuming said member has not previously been a member in good standing of another bar for a period equal to or longer than four years). Any law student shall be eligible for a Law Student Membership upon enrolling in an accredited law school, which membership shall be available until admittance to any State Bar or the District of Columbia Bar is obtained or one year after graduation, whichever ever comes first. Any person is eligible for the Friend of GAWL Membership category, regardless of affiliation with any law school, firm, or state bar organization. Any Full Member who has practiced for 15 years, who has been a GAWL member for 10 years, who is a Judge, or who is a Past President of GAWL shall be eligible for the Benefactor Membership category.

GAWL FOUNDATION

The Georgia Association for Women Lawyers Foundation is a 501(c)(3) non-profit, sister organization of GAWL that provides community service opportunities for GAWL members. The Foundation's mission is to encourage philanthropy by women lawyers in Georgia for the benefit of the greater community. Membership in GAWL includes membership in the Foundation. With the help of GAWL Foundation committees, the Foundation sponsors community service events, issues grants to other charities, hosts the annual Art Auction gala, and awards scholarships to deserving women law students with funds raised through the auction. By working together, the GAWL Foundation will continue the tradition of community service, and GAWL will continue providing members with networking, rainmaking and leadership training opportunities. For more information about the Foundation or to join a committee, please contact the Foundation's President at GAWL.Foundation@gmail.com. A percentage of all membership dues is directed to the GAWL Foundation. To make a tax-deductible donation directly to the Foundation Endowment, please mail a check payable to the GAWL Foundation, Inc., to P.O. Box 79308, Atlanta, GA 30357 or donate on the GAWL website. Unlike donations to the GAWL Foundation, contributions or gifts to GAWL are not tax deductible as charitable contributions. However, they may be tax deductible as ordinary and necessary business expenses.

Donations made through this application to the GAWL Foundation will be deposited into the GAWL Foundation Endowment. If you indicate you would like to "round up" the cost of your membership, the total amount charged will be the next even dollar amount in ten-dollar increments (example: if the membership cost is $32.08 and you "round up", you will be charged $40.00). Alternatively, if you wish to add a custom amount, please check the second line and write in the amount of the donation you wish to make.

If you have questions, please contact GAWL.Membership@gmail.com.

We invite you to visit our website at www.gawl.org for more information about our organization and how you can get involved.
