

Meet Up Conference Call – “Teaching Tough Topics with Secular Books”

May 7, 2018

Hosted by: Jeanne Zamutt

Temple Emanu-El librarian, Jeanne Zamutt, explores using secular books to teach about peace, immigration and refugees, children’s rights, diversity, special rights (disabilities), and civil rights.

Jeanne has been a part of Temple Emanu-El's staff for 19 years, first as a three's teacher and then as librarian for the youth and early childhood libraries. Two years ago, Jeanne added the adult library to her duties. Jeanne has 3 children and enjoys baking and singing.

Meet Up Resources

Download the Suggested Reading List from Jeanne Zamutt

or check out these websites:

www.multiculturalchildrensbookday.com

www.readbrightly.com

www.whatdowedoallday.com