

January Meet Up Conference Call

“Talking About Our Unmentionables”

Hosted by: Susie Wexler

Host Susie Wexler is the Director of the Early Childhood Program at the Chava Center. She brings a background in social work, Jewish community work and early childhood education to BJBE. She is a lifelong learner who brings a passion for research and Jewish exploration to young children, and families and staff. A consummate educator, she has presented locally and nationally on best practices in early childhood education. Susie is committed to engaging young families with support and nurturance through developmentally appropriate Jewish education experiences.

Unmentionables are topics that are sensitive in nature. So...an example could be...“I am not getting along with a board member....”
