

NATIONAL AIRCRAFT FINANCE ASSOCIATION SCHOLARSHIP

Information

The NAFA Corporate Aviation Business Scholarship was established to benefit university students seeking a business career in Corporate Aviation and, specifically, within the corporate aircraft Finance, Legal and Insurance community.

This Scholarship is offered by the National Aircraft Finance Association (“NAFA”), and the amount of Scholarship funds to be made available each year, and for any one Scholarship winner, shall be determined annually by the NAFA Board of Directors.

NAFA will accept applications from qualified applicants attending Colleges and Universities offering course work in Accounting, Business Marketing, Economics, and/or Finance, with a focus on Aviation Business/Management. All interested applicants must apply through their University’s Financial Aid office, and the University shall submit to NAFA, by no later than October 31st, a list of applicants meeting the NAFA Scholarship requirements. The NAFA Board shall approve all Scholarships to be awarded each year, and advise all Applicants through their University’s Financial Aid Office, by November 30th.

NAFA is committed to providing Scholarships on an annual basis to worthy candidates. However, NAFA will be under no obligation to provide any Scholarships during any single calendar year.

Award: Scholarships awards are monetary and may be from $1,000 to $5,000 in value.

Qualifications: This award is available to Full-time, Undergraduate (Freshman through Senior) students (a minimum of 12 hours/semester) and Graduate Students. Students who are US Citizens or Permanent Residents are preferred. Applicants must have a 3.0 minimum cumulative GPA on a 4.0 grade scale (High School GPA for Freshman applicants).

Application submission:

Eligible students should apply through their University’s Financial Aid office. All completed applications must be submitted to NAFA by the University’s Financial Aid office and must be received by NAFA no later than October 31st.

Applications, and all supporting material, must be mailed to:
